

LMR9 Medium Duty Range

When quality, performance and value for money are your topmost priorities, Lincat's medium duty six burner range provides them in full measure.

The robust and sturdy full stainless steel construction, coupled with powerful hob burners and a sizeable oven, will cope with the day to day demands of the busiest kitchens.

Ease of cleaning has driven the design of the LMR9 which has a fully pressed sealed hob, enamelled oven interior and removable oven base plate.

The unit is supplied with legs or castors at no additional cost. And for added versatility you can choose from a whole range of optional accessories including a splashback, enamelled pan supports and a duck rack.
